Aanii Aamjiwnaang,

On Tuesday, September 10th, our team pictured above attended a Crown-Indigenous Relations and Northern Affairs (CIRNAC) consultation meeting in Toronto Ontario. CIRNAC is in the process of renewing their consultation guidelines. The current guidelines have not been updated since 2008. Engagement has been happening across Canada with the timeline for being finalized in Fall of 2025/ 2026. Our Team was eager to contribute to new guidelines.

There will be further engagement next year to continue the development and refinement of the guidelines before they are presented to the public. Please feel encouraged to reach out to Courtney Jackson (c.jackson@aamjiwnaang.ca) to share additional comments so we can bring the Aamjiwnaang perspective concerning consultation to the Federal Government.

Please visit their website for additional information.

ELECTION LAW

Aanii, Aamjiwnaang

Aamjiwnaang administrative staff along with Aamjiwnaang bendaazijig (members) have been working on creating a custom election law for many years to promote Aamjiwnaang sovereignty and decrease our dependence on the Indian Act. This law will strengthen Aamjiwnaang.

This law will need to be ratified for it to take effect in our nation. It is extremely important that Aamjiwnaang bendaazijig (members) review the law before it is voted upon.

The two pages to follow outline some key points that make up our election law. The idea is to highlight some key points, members should still review the whole document to be well informed when a ratification vote is scheduled.

Miiwetch, Kina Wiiyaal
